

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 12, 1864.

Now, by St. Paul, the work goes bravely on, The Stars and Stripes are up for Liberty, Flag of the Nation—Tallman of the Free, Ours'd be the hand that dares to tear these down.

HONOR PAID TO GOLD RUN.—On last Thursday evening, the Union boys of Dutch Flat proceeded with transparencies, music and cannon, to the town of Gold Run, and there thundered forth their applause of the citizens of that glorious little place for the clear vote which they had polled for Father Abraham, he receiving 81 votes and McClellan but 3.

Speeches were made, lager beer, whisky and ginger pop flowed spontaneously and were poured down promiscuously by the delighted multitude, largely composed of temperance men, many of whom it is said got quite—well, it is but once in four years that Father Abraham is elected. The occasion is described by participants as having been indescribably jolly, despite the attempt of a miserable old pettifogging bore to turn the grand national rejoicing into a glorification of the collector elect. The patriotism of the boys of Gold Run is a little too broad for that—rather a poor place for mean souls to pour out their meanness. That order of oratory might do at Last Chance or Lost Camp, but we will prophesy, will be treated with contempt at Gold Run while Gold Run stands. Hurrah, for the boys of Gold Run who voted almost to a man for Abraham Lincoln, and Hurrah, for the ladies of Gold Run too—for we shrewdly suspect that the influence of those bright loyal beauties wrought largely in the result. Girls, "get after" those three copperheads.

ELECTION RETURNS.

The Tribune claims New York for the Union party and the World claims it for the Democracy. New Jersey, McClellan 4,500 majority. Maryland, Lincoln 7,000 majority. Delaware, McClellan 450 majority. Pennsylvania, Lincoln 10,000 majority and the soldiers vote to be heard from. Illinois, Cairo City, gave McClellan 354 majority. Marion County, 100 majority for McClellan. Centralia, 300 Union majority. Williamson County, a small Union majority. Union County, 450 majority for McClellan. Massac County, 465 Union majority. Mercer County, 500 majority. West Virginia, Phelps (Union) is elected in the Third Congressional District. Ohio, the returns indicate an increase of the Union majority over the October vote, by about 10,000 to 15,000. Kentucky, Paducah County, Lincoln 227 majority. Columbus, Lincoln 20 majority. Hickman, Lincoln 45 majority. Clinton, Lincoln 60 majority. Alexander, 100 majority for McClellan.

The returns from all the precincts in this county show the following result: Lincoln 1768. McClellan 1158. Majority for Lincoln 800.

For Collector, Dist. No. 2, Miller 622. Curley 292. Kopp 172.

Gold Run is the 'Banner Precinct' in the District. Of 83 votes polled there 'Littlmac' got but three. Hurrah, for Gold Run.

The Tribune claims all New England, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New York, Missouri, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas for Lincoln, giving a total of 191 electoral votes, independent of the Pacific States.

California State election, Lincoln's present majority about 17,000.

The vote of the Allison Ranch precinct in Nevada county, was undoubtedly fraudulent. This precinct then, will probably be thrown out which will give that county 327 greater majority than has been reported.

MITE SOCIETY.—The Mite Society will meet at the residence of Mrs. Jewel, Cañon Creek, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 15th. A good time is expected. All are cordially invited to attend.

The late election passed off very quietly at Dutch Flat. It was the most orderly election ever held here. Every Saloon in town was closed—which accounts for it. Behold the sweet influence of sobriety!

FIRE.—The dwelling house of Mrs. Coyle, was consumed by fire at this place on the 7th inst. Pretty much all of her household stores perished in the flames. This is the second time within a year that this unfortunate woman has been burnt out of house and home.

McClellan's resignation as Major General in the United States Army was received at the War Department on Tuesday, November 8th. Littlmac has't the papers to show for anything now.

The San Francisco Daily Argus threw up the sponge and expired, as soon as the telegraph began to tell the election returns from the East. It's dirty work is done. Beriah's Press will follow next.

According to an account in the Savannah Republican the losses during the bombardment of Atlanta will reach five millions of dollars worth of real estate, embracing forty-seven houses burnt. There were 497 persons killed and 657 wounded.

The examination of the soldier Moore for the killing of Levi Coover, at this place, has resulted in Moore being bound over for trial in the sum of $2000.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.—The only men who can do the straight thing, are the men who voted the straight ticket, for corroboration of this, enquire of the Gold Run boys.

In the examination into the late homicide at this place, Jacksons' and Judge Arnolds' evidence was considered not to the point.

THE SITUATION.

Behold, Father Abraham is re-elected President of the United States, for the ensuing four years! The American people have calmly re-committed the destinies of the nation to his hands and instructed him to proceed and subdue the rebellion. The world now knows that the task will be accomplished, and that the Union will stand. All other considerations are, and ought to be, lost sight of in this. The Union will be preserved! It is glory enough for an American to know that his name will remain untarnished, though the peace, happiness and prosperity of his country may be for a time disturbed.

There is not that jubilant rejoicing at the re-election of Mr. Lincoln to the Presidency which usually marks the election of American Presidents—nor approaching that which marked his own former election—yet let no copperhead gain a morsel of consolation from this admission; for never was a people so zealously devoted to the prosecution of guiding principles as that people who have achieved the election of Abraham Lincoln as the chosen representative and exponent of those principles; never before did such eloquent, heart-speaking ballots for a ruler fall, as fell for him in the ballot-box on the eighth day of this ever memorable November. But the reason of this national somberness, is plain; the nation is already in mourning, yet resolved to do or die, to triumph now or perish forever. Thousands of its brave sons are sleeping in the dust, and their memory comes up as fresh legions move past to battle.

It is the dawning at last, of a full and thorough understanding of the situation of the Republic, of the battles which must yet be fought, of the sacrifices which yet must be made to restore its whilom enjoyments and blessings, and of the firm and unyielding determination of its sons to fight those battles and to make those sacrifices. To this they pledge themselves in the re-election of Mr. Lincoln to the Presidency.

The Republic is now fairly committed to war, stern, vigorous, unceasing war until the rebellion shall have been subdued. It is natural and just that grave reflections should come over a people brought to death face to face with this grand calamity.

The voice of the nation has been heard, and it is now understood that the abolition of slavery in all the rebellious States is demanded as a penance for the attempted crime of secession and as a guarantee of the future happiness and permanency of the Republic. To this end the entire energy of the nation is to be devoted. Every man who voted for Abraham Lincoln voted for it; and every man who voted for him and does not support him with heart and soul, is a double traitor. Having irreversibly committed the nation to war, humanity demands that the war should be made as fierce, sanguinary and short lived as possible. So be it henceforth waged for the complete success of the objects demanded, for if stopped short thereof, it will stand recorded upon the world's page as little better than Northern murder.

TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION.—The Union straight's to the number of 150 persons, paraded here last night with music and transparencies in honor of the recent glorious Union victory. Many of the citizens of Gold Run were present and took part in the rejoicing.

It was a good time generally, nothing transpiring to disturb the harmony of the occasion. The unmitigated old bore who shot off his personal prejudices at Gold Run the other night upon a similar occasion of National rejoicing, wisely availing himself of that silence and obscurity which so well becomes him. How are you by this time?

MAGNIFICENT ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainment extended by the Straights of this place to the Gold Run Union Boys, on last evening, may be summed up thus: The Gold Run Union Boys were permitted to come into town, treat themselves when dry, and after a short exercise of this inestimable privilege, were corralled in the Straight's Club room where a hat was shoved in their faces and a subscription taken up among them to assist in paying for the Straight's liberty pole and flag. Hurrah, for the Straights!

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—Wm. W. Phillips a miner at this place, a man of Southern birth and a life-long democrat, voted for Abraham Lincoln at the late election, and finished the day by subscribing $5.00 to pay for the Straight's liberty pole and flag. Mr. Phillips dates the beginning of his conversion from the occasion when Todd Robinson was advertised to speak here some years ago, and no decent democrat could be found to act as Chairman. Verily, the heaven of truth is infallible.

DURING times of political excitement, it sometimes happens that very shallow-pated persons enjoy a passing notoriety who, when the excitement has subsided, swiftly return to the just and legitimate condition of obscurity from whence they sprung, and are heard of no more; save as a theme of jest, until the God of Fun, in his humor sympathy and pity, bids the season of the Fools harvest to return again.

A great many late ridiculously prominent personages hereabout are fast fading from view.

The Flag of November 9th says: "No man should employ or trade with any one who voted the Copperhead ticket yesterday. The infernal traitors would have betrayed our country to the rebels, if they could. Let them be remembered as traitors to the last days of their lives. Their hypocritical pretensions of 'Democracy' fools nobody. We all know what 'Democracy' means now."

TONSORIAL ART.—Mr. Henry Sicman is an accomplished and gentlemanly barber of this place, renders satisfaction to all. Give him a call.

SUMMARY of the Enquiry into the case of Levi Coover, at the town of Dutch Flat, Placer County, California, on November, 8th 1864. W. G. Brown, acting Coroner.

Ten witnesses were examined in this enquiry and the evidence adduced in each instance was harmonious and corroborative of the whole with the exception of one instance, to-wit: the evidence of one William Jackson. The entire testimony being too voluminous for publication, we will present that of but three witnesses, namely, Lee Allen's, Alanson Port's and William Jackson's, which will lay the case in as fair a light before the judgment of our readers as would the perusal of the testimony entire.

Lee Allen, deposed and said, I reside in Dutch Flat, did not know deceased, have seen the man who was pointed out to me as Coover, saw him alive last, about half past five o'clock on yesterday evening at the quarters, he died there. I went over to the quarters about half past five o'clock, I found a man there who did not belong to the quarters, there appeared to be some dispute arising, in regard to tickets to be used at the next election, heard this man say to one of the soldiers that he would give him a Copperhead ticket on the day of the election, the soldier replied that if he did he would put it to a particular use (of a vulgar nature) the man replied that if he did he would get licked, soldier asked him if he had come there for a fight, the man made no reply that I heard, but stepped upon the porch in a threatening manner, at that time I saw there was about to be a row and I interfered between the two men. I requested this man to leave, he refused to do so, I struck him. The next thing that I saw, was two men coming down the street at a quick pace, and then I saw Coover on the side-walk, pulling off his coat, challenging for a fight, he stepped down off the side-walk and advanced some three or four feet and received a blow which knocked him down, he received the blow from the hand of a man named Charles D. Moore, he (Coover) was advancing in a threatening manner towards Moore. There was another man advancing which attracted my attention and I was unable to see the nature of the blow given to Coover. I saw the man (Coover) fall, after that I paid no attention to him until the row was over. As soon as it was over I paid attention to the man and had him taken into the quarters, placed on a bed. Sent for a Physician before he was taken into the quarters. The Physician came, and I ascertained that the man was dead. (Answer to a juror) When Coover came up he was using threatening language not against any one in particular, but to all, he intimated, he was ready for a fight and backed it up by his actions.

Alanson Port, sworn and testified. I live at Dutch Flat, I was present at the affray in which Mr. Coover lost his life. Mr. Redstone and a soldier was talking at the barracks, what ticket they were going to vote, the soldier said he would take all the copperhead votes that were offered to him, and fold them up for his private use. An Irishman, stepped up and said he should offer him one on election day, and that if he made that use of it he should knock him down, the soldier said "may be you would like to do it now," he said he would, the soldier then pulled off his coat and pushed him off the steps, I think the Irishman struck first, and the soldier knocked him down, but I could not say which struck first, the Irishman got up and made a pass with a picket, about an inch thick and about three or four feet long at the soldier, the soldier knocked off the blow, and grabbed the picket with his hands and took it away from the Irishman and hit him with it, but did not hit him down, at this time another man took off his coat and made a pass for the soldier, and another soldier got between them, the first soldier then struck with the picket the man that had his coat off partly over the shoulder of the soldier that stood between them, and hit him on the side of the neck as I think the man did not get up. He took off his coat and threw it down and made a pass at the soldier. I did not hear any remarks from the man, there was considerable confusion at the time.

ALANSON PORT.
Mr. Wm. Jackson, sworn and testified. I knew the deceased Mr. Coover, I was not there at the commencement of the fight, Mr. Coover, Mr. Dunlap and myself and the Irishman started together, me and Mr. Dunlap left Mr. Coover and the Irishman behind, we were going to Sonatas to roll ten pins, Dunlap and me got there first, and was waiting on them, called them, and they did not come, we heard a fuss at the barracks, Mr. Dunlap spoke to me and said "let us go back they are fighting" and we ran back, Mr. Moore was striking the Irishman with a club when we got there, out in the street. Mr. Coover was walking from them up the street with his coat on his arm, and I spoke to him and asked "what is the matter," he said, "that fellow is beating the Irishman," I said "come lets leave here" he was then about eight feet in the street, when I spoke and said, "lets leave" he turned a little to his left side and said "well" and was walking towards the side-walk, and then this man struck him on the back of his head with his club and knocked him down and struck me, I knocked off the lick and he followed me up, I told him to stop or I would kill him, then Mr. Allen jerked out a Revolver and cocked it at me, and I turned and went away and came over to town.

When I went down the street Mr. Coover was coming up the street with his coat on his arm.

Town of Dutch Flat, Before W. G. Brown, J. P. In the matter of the inquisition upon the body of Levi Coover, Deceased:

We, the undersigned, the jurors summoned to appear before W. G. Brown, Justice of the Peace for Township No. 4, Placer Co., Dutch Flat, on the 7th day of November 1864, to inquire into the cause of the death of Levi Coover, having been duly sworn according to law, and having made such inquisition, after inspecting the body, and hearing the testimony adduced upon our oath, each and all to say, that we find the deceased was named Levi Coover, was a native of Ohio, aged about 35 years, that he came to his death on the 6th day of November, 1864, in the town of Dutch Flat by a blow on the left side of the neck from a piece of board or plank in the hands of Charles D. Moore, and we further find, that we believe Charles D. Moore, to be the person by whose act the death of the said Levi Coover, is occasioned.

All of which we duly certify by this inquisition, in writing by us signed this 7th day of November, 1864.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT:—We clip the following from the "Special dispatches to the Union."

CINCINNATI, November 9th.
Officers from Chattanooga report that Sherman returned to Atlanta last week with five corps of his army, leaving two corps in Tennessee under Thomas to watch Hood. He destroyed the railroad from Chattanooga to Atlanta, and after sending the iron to Chattanooga, Atlanta was burned, Sherman is now marching directly for Charleston (S. C.).

CINCINNATI, November 9th.—Midnight.
Authentic intelligence of a startling nature has been received from Sherman's department. He returned to Atlanta last week from the simulated pursuit of Hood with five corps of his army, leaving General Thomas with two corps to watch and attend to the rebel's movements. He destroyed the railroad from Chattanooga to Atlanta. General Sherman has set fire to Atlanta, completely destroying that place, and is marching for Charleston (S. C.) Just previous to entering upon the present movement, General Sherman wrote as follows: Hood has crossed the Tennessee, and Georgia and South Carolina are at my mercy and I shall strike. Do not be anxious about me. I am all right.

The London Index has been debarred the privilege of the mails by our wise and virtuous Government. It published too many facts from their Southern correspondents about the war. They didn't agree with the telegraphic reports—hence its suppression. We shall probably not see it again in this quarter until after McClellan's inauguration.

Then you'll never see it again.

A BALL will be given at this place on Thanksgiving evening for the benefit of the Jordan Brothers each of whom lost an arm while fighting in honor of the visit of the Little York Union Guard to the Pacific Guard, some months ago. It is hoped that our citizens will make no arrangements for Thanksgiving evening that will interfere with giving these boys a good benefit. They are worthy and destitute, and their only star of hope is the charity of the community in which they have been maimed.

HORRIBLE LUSUS NATURE.—About two weeks ago, says the Dubuque Herald of August 21st, the wife of a market gardener, residing at Eagle Point, in that city, gave birth to twins, which, instead of being provided with the head and features of the "human face divine," had each the head and neck of a snake! The surgeons in attendance, bled the monstrous births to death.

Horror, upon reading the above, we groaned aloud, when REDSTONE, at his case, turned sharply around and enquired: "What's the matter?" Upon our reciting to him the frightful paragraph, he replied: "Humph, there is nothing remarkable about that; that woman was the wife of a Copperhead."

DEFINITION OF THE TERM, GUERRILLA.—A certain old pettingfrog humbug resident hereabout, holds the definition of the term to be: A man who supports an independent candidate in lieu of the regular nominee of his party. Very good, but that is not our conception of the definition of the term. We hold that it means a man who invites his friends to pay him a visit, and proceeds to take up a subscription among them to defray expenses. That's our conception of a guerrilla. How are you now?

Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold," in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. A LADY OF WORLD-WIDE REPUTATION.
Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Zylolalsammum or World's Hair Dressing are unequalled, and so acknowledged by all who use them for restoring, invigorating, beautifying and dressing the Hair, rendering it soft, silky and glossy, and disposing it to remain in any desired position; quickly cleansing the scalp, arresting the fall and imparting a healthy and natural color to the Hair. They never fail to restore grey Hair to its original youthful color. They act directly upon the roots of the Hair, giving them the natural nourishment required. No lady's toilet is complete without the Zylolalsammum or Hair Dressing. It cleanses hair and imparts to it a most delightful fragrance, and is suited to both young and old.

The Hair Dressing Cultivates and Beautifies.

If your hair is thin, try it; if scurfy, try it; if harsh, try it; if lustreless, try it; if none of these, try it, for all who use it will preserve their hair for life. For sale by all Druggists. Agents for California, Hostetter, Dean & Smith, San Francisco. [may 20-6m]

PAID IN GREENBACKS!

D. R. W. D. OLENDORF, OF RED BLUFF,
California, availing himself of the law making greenbacks a legal tender, has, through Messrs. Wells, Fargo & Co., tendered and paid us two hundred and seventy-five dollars in greenbacks (for goods purchased payable in greenbacks), in full payment of his obligations to us. This amount we were compelled to receive or get nothing.

We feel it our duty to let the public know of this, as any other tender of like character, that they may understand why the parties are that will avail themselves of the cheap but unjust mode of paying their honest debts.
